Hearing Due Soon On Signs

A public hearing probably will be held soon on the village of Antioch's proposed sign ordinance.

The document got final approval from the village planning commission last Thursday. That group will recommend that the village board amend the zoning ordinance to include the new sign ordinance.

At its meeting next Monday night, the village board is expected to forward the sign ordinance to the zoning board of appeals, which will set the date for a public hearing.

A HEARING on Harold Young's request to rezone his property on N. Main St. will be held by the zoning board of appeals on Thursday, Nov. 21.

Mr. Young wants to rezone his land from single family to multiple family use.

The Plaza Celebrates 10th Year

Antioch's pioneers wouldn't recognize Ackerman's Slough today.

The land that once had that nickname is now the Antioch Shopping Plaza, which is celebrating its 10th anniversary this week.

(Mr. Ackerman, incidentally, was an inventor who owned a lot of land in the area. Among other things, he invented a lead expansion bolt - a bolt which expands after being driven into concrete.)

BUT THAT'S history. The news today is that the Plaza's "Sell-A-Bration" will run for three days - Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Shoppers will be flocking to turn to Page 8

Grateful For Public Approval

Following is a statement by Congressman Robert McClory, Lake Bluff Republican who was re-elected to Congress from the 13th District:

"The election results evidence a lot of confidence in my congressional service—which was expressed throughout the campaign—by literally thousands of citizens with whom I came in direct contact.

"Faced with more difficult decisions during this past year than at any earlier period in my Congressional career, I am most grateful to have this indication of popular approval.

Adventurers Awards Night

The Antioch Adventurers 4-H club did quite well this year at awards night. Silvia and Doris Meuter both received their 9 year pins. Karen Kirschke and Violet Meuter won a $25 Savings Bond from the Lake County Gem & Mineral Society for their grand champion rock projects.

Violet Meuter was chosen to go to conservation camp next summer for one week at Monticello, Illinois. The club, also, received a certificate of award for their road side erosion survey.

At the November meeting Karen Kirschke demonstrated how to repot a plant and Violet Meuter showed everyone how to tell the hardness of rocks and how to identify them.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Now that I'm on a diet, it would be just my luck to win that $100 basket of groceries at the Antioch Shopping Plaza celebration - but I'll take it, I'll take it... Be sure to stop in at all the stores in the Plaza and take advantage of all their bargains.

It sure was a big weekend for traveling - Amy and Phil Laurin spent a few days with friends in Wisconsin, Rose and Bob Lipinski visited family in Rock Island, Ill., and Marty and Dave Booth were in St. Louis. I'm sure lots of little vacations were planned.

What a super letter Pol - too bad Jan and I are so lazy!!!

St. Peter's Thanksgiving Dance was its usual big success. Everyone always stays till the band goes home and the food was just scrumptious.

I hear Pat Holbock had a fantastic pumpkin score at the bowling alley the other day.

Jerry Pfarr and daughters Ann and Mary spent a day last weekend in Chicago visiting the Sears Tower, riding on the subway and just having a good time together in the big city. Lots of fun, everyone came home happy and tired.

Mrs. Anna Nader will celebrate her 90th birthday on Nov. 20th. Her family is planning an open house on Sunday, Nov. 17 at 7 West Grand, Lake Villa for anyone who might like to drop in and wish her a happy birthday. No presents please. Happy birthday Anna, hope you have a lovely day.

Marion Prange celebrated

Thanksgiving a little early this weekend. Her son Richard and his wife Dani and their three children were home for the weekend. Daughter Sheri was home from N.T.U. also.

Celebrating birthdays this week are Kim Burdick on the 13th, Tim Harvey on the 15th, Lorraine Kennedy, Jack Davis and Melody Cox on the 17th and Colleen Good and Dan Purferst on the 19th.

Anniversary congrats to Jim and Ethel Herman and Florence and Otto Hanke who both celebrate on the 13th.

See ya,

Youth Awareness Week

By SUE SEDIVEC

From Monday, Nov. 18 to Friday, Nov. 22, the youth of the Antioch Community will be participating in a Youth-Government Awareness Week.

Members of high school government classes, under the direction of Mr. Gary Allen, will assume the roles of mayor, police chief and other village officials and experience the "hows and whys" of Antioch government.

Sixth, seventh and eighth grade students are being invited to enter an essay contest to involve them in community spirit. The essays, titled "I Like It Here in Antioch Because..." will be judged on creativity, structure and content. Prizes will be awarded to the five best entries.

Students also will be visiting the village offices to see how the local government operates. Besides encouraging student involvement in the community, the week is designed to create more positive community attitudes.

I hope that most of our citizens can smile that week and appreciate the good aspects of our village and the people in it. "We do like it here because..."

Take time to appreciate your own surroundings.

Life in a little land bypassed by crime

The tiny country of Andorra — the storybook nation wedged in the Pyrenees mountains between France and Spain that time and crime forgot — stubbornly resists the 20th century.

The people of peaceful Andorra enjoy unheard-of privileges in today's hectic world.

Among other things, Andorra boasts:

- No income tax.
- No drug problem, no mugging, no rape, no war.
- No psychiatrists.
- Free mail delivery — there are no postage stamps required for mail inside Andorra.
- An annual defense budget of only $5.

"We use the defense budget to buy blanks for the police when we salute visiting dignitaries," explained Antoni Morell i Mora, 34, Andorra's top public official.

"We call this place paradise," he smiled. "We have no psychiatrists because so far our people haven't seemed to need them."

Crime is practically nonexistent in Andorra. The last murder was five years ago. Most offenses include fights, drunkenness or careless driving. And it was only this year that the country was outraged by the first armed robbery in its 700-year history.

"We nabbed the bandits after a bank guard blasted one of them with his shotgun," said a beaming Police Chief Daniel Armengol.

Andorrans, who have never been in a war since their country was formed in 1278, cling fiercely to their ancient customs, according to Morell.

The political leaders — representatives of the president of France and the Bishop of Urgel in Spain — are not always paid with money, but sometimes with cheeses or chickens!

Letters can be mailed without stamps and delivered free in Andorra. For mail outside the country, Andorra stamps are issued by the French and Spanish.

Roser Jordana Mallol, deputy director of the government's information service, said: "There is no income tax and only a very small property tax. Tourism is our biggest industry, and we make our money on a 2% import tax" — National Enquirer.

Jackson On China

Senator Henry Jackson, one of the Democrats seeking his party's 1976 presidential nomination, has recently visited China.

Jackson came back proposing that Washington seize the opportunity of the moment to draw closer to Red China. He feels: "We must grasp this moment in history when geopolitical considerations have brought our two countries close together."

Antioch is in for a special basketball treat next April 3.

The Harlem Globetrotters will be in town that night for a performance at the high school gym. The attraction is being sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce.

GOLDWATER COLUMN

93rd Congress Passed 'Worst Law'

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

History tells us that the word "reform" in legislation does not make that legislation anything special. In fact, more often than not, it means a law that will compound the trouble it is designed to correct.

It is my sincere belief that the 93rd Congress, when it passed the campaign reform bill as a result of the Watergate scandal and related irregularities, did the public a grave disservice.

Any way you look at it, the measure jammed through in the name of reform by the radical-liberal Democrats who control the House and Senate was one of the worst statutes it has been my misfortune to see placed on the nation's lawbooks.

THE BILL HAS a lot of provisions, some good and some bad, but the overall effect of the measure is to salt incumbents in their congressional seats for as long as they want to stay. When you realize that the Democrats controlling the House and Senate picked up added strength on Nov. 5, you can understand why this course was taken. What is hard to understand is why any Republicans voted for it and why President Ford signed it.

The bill is referred to on Capitol Hill as the "incumbent protection law." This means that the provisions of the spending act will make it almost impossible for new candidates to challenge seated House and Senate members and still remain within the confines of the law. A 10-year-old child could explain how dandy this will be when House and Senate members come up for re-election. And the election Nov. 5 gave the Democrats a heavily weighted majority on the side of liberalism, spending and big government in the House and Senate.

THE MEASURE limits the amount a candidate for the House is allowed to spend to $70,000 (the figure for Senate primary candidates is $100,000) in a primary campaign. This means that in many districts a challenger will have about as much chance as a snowball in a furnace of toppling the incumbent. It figures out at about eight cents per eligible voter and means that a challenger couldn't even cover his district with one mailing if he used his own postage.

Democrats, who stand to benefit most, engineered a masterpiece of timing in bringing the reform bill to a vote. I came up just enough ahead of the general election to make it appear that any Republicans voting against it were against reform and in favor of Watergate tactics. I feel that anyone who voted against this measure, under these circumstances, deserves a listing if a sequel is ever written to John F. Kennedy's best-selling book entitled "Profiles in Courage."

Old Photos Wanted

The Environmental Education program in local grade schools is producing a filmstrip about the history of Antioch.

Mary Kern, associate director of the Environmental Education office, said, "Persons having old photographs of the Antioch area, preferably 8 by 10 inches in size, could call me at 395-5333 if they are willing to let us reproduce their pictures."

"The pictures will be re-photographed and made into slides," she said, "and the original pictures will be returned to the owners unharmed."

Beach Storage For Oakwood Knolls

Joe Pittman, beach chairman of the Oakwood Knolls Property Owners Association, reports the extension to the beach storage building is almost completed. Joe and his committee, George Kellogg, Bob Johnson, Curt Denny, Howard Schiffmann, Clem Mursean, Joe Veith and Ed Johnston took advantage of the recent good weather to erect the extension in record time. This will double the storage capacity of the building and will house the additional playground equipment purchased by the Association last summer also, a new snowblower which was approved for purchase at the last association meeting.

The beach committee has also been busy clearing the brush from the Lakewood property for access in preparation to installing new piers.

A reminder to all association members that the November meeting will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 20 at 8 p.m. at the State Bank of Antioch. Among the things to be discussed are the Christmas activities.

On Monday of this week work was commenced on the branch line of the Wisconsin Central railroad. It is thought that this branch will eventually be continued to Lake Geneva and Portage and on, thus making a shorter route to St. Paul.

The Agricultural Club Octet has been asked to give two selections as their part in the Father and Son Banquet which is to be broadcasted from Station KYW, Chicago, at 8 p.m. tomorrow. Mrs. James McVey was very sick the fore part of the week. At present she is on the gain.

20 YEARS AGO NOVEMBER 11, 1954

Antioch and the Antioch Fire District have purchased new wet water proportioners which, according to Chief Edgar Simonsen, were tried out during Sunday's Civil Defense rehearsal with much success.

Two soloists of the Antioch Grade School band were broadcast over radio station WKRS in Waukegan last Tuesday morning. Sonya Pickus, first chair horn player, played "Berceuse" by Godard and Janice Hughes played Tchaikowsky's "Sleeping Beauty Waltz" on the bass clarinet.

Like so many things now but memories, the 5-cent candy bar may become a treat of the past if the price of cocoa beans continues its rise, says Philip P. Gott, president of the National Confectioners' Association.

The Town Crier

Chicago's Mayor Daley, President Ford and the Pope were out fishing in a rowboat.

The boat began to sink and there was only one life preserver.

"I think I should have it," said President Ford. "After all, I'm the leader of the most important nation in the world, and my country is relying on me."

"I think I should have the life preserver," said the Pope. "After all, I'm the head of the Roman Catholic Church and my flock includes people all over the world."

"I think we should do the Democratic thing and vote on it," suggested Mayor Daley.

So they voted and Mayor Daley won, 3 to 0.

DID YOU NOTICE that item in our "Time Machine" column last week? Ten years ago, Nov. 5, 1964:

"President Lyndon Johnson was returned to the highest office in the land by the largest plurality ever piled up by a presidential candidate. Heavily Republican Antioch, however, gave the largest vote to Sen. Barry Goldwater."

WHEN SENATOR Adlai Stevenson visited Antioch 12 days ago he had some fun talking to area Democrats at Lorenz's restaurant.

"My father lived in Libertyville, you will recall, so I know something about what it's like to be a Democrat in Lake County," he said.

His message for any Republican who might be in the crowd was, "it's never too late to be saved ... we believe in forgiveness of sins ... but, of course, it's getting pretty late."

Adlai was nice enough to call President Gerald Ford "a decent man."

A SMALL TOWN is where you call the pastor by his first name. Hear ye!

the center to register for three prizes — a color television set, a $100 basket of groceries and a $100 humidifier. (An advertisement appears on page 7 of this issue.)

Fred Walpole, manager of the Plaza, recalls that some of the land over there was once a peat bog.

The A&P store was the first one built in the Plaza 10 years ago and 11 months later it burned to the ground. The store was rebuilt and just this year was expanded and remodeled. One of the most impressive things about the Plaza, which now includes 12 stores and businesses, is its attractive appearance. The owners recently added to this feature by planting radiant crabtrees in the front of the stores.

Another interesting feature of the Plaza is that it is a shopping center within walking distance of the village's downtown business district.

Walpole says that the village board and Mayor Murrell Cunningham, at the time the shopping center was being composed, "were very cooperative. They had, along with the developers, the vision that a downtown center would benefit Antioch greatly and would deter developers from starting a competitive commercial center outside the corporate limits of Antioch, whereupon the village would lose retail sales tax dollars and existing merchants would be hurt."

Included in the Antioch Shopping Plaza today are the satellite facility of the First National Bank, Orchard Cleaners, the Coach House laundromat, Antioch Drugs, a Foremost Liquor Store, and seven other popular stores: Stanley's Men's Fashions, Gibbs and Jenssen's "Carousel," The Shoe Box, The Globe, Sears, Ace Hardware and the A&P Store.

Six things your telephone can do besides ring.

Not only can your telephone look a lot of different ways.

It can do a lot of different things as well. Things you may not even know about. For example:

It can serve as a night light.

Put a Princess® phone in the bedroom and it becomes a night light (with an on-off switch). When you put the handset down, the Touch-Tone® buttons (or rotary dial) will glow softly.

And when you lift the handset up, the light brightens to make night dialing easier.

The Princess phone costs only 85¢ per month plus a $5 one-time equipment charge.

Or you can choose to make a $35 one-time payment and no monthly payments. (Add 95¢ monthly if it is an extension phone.)

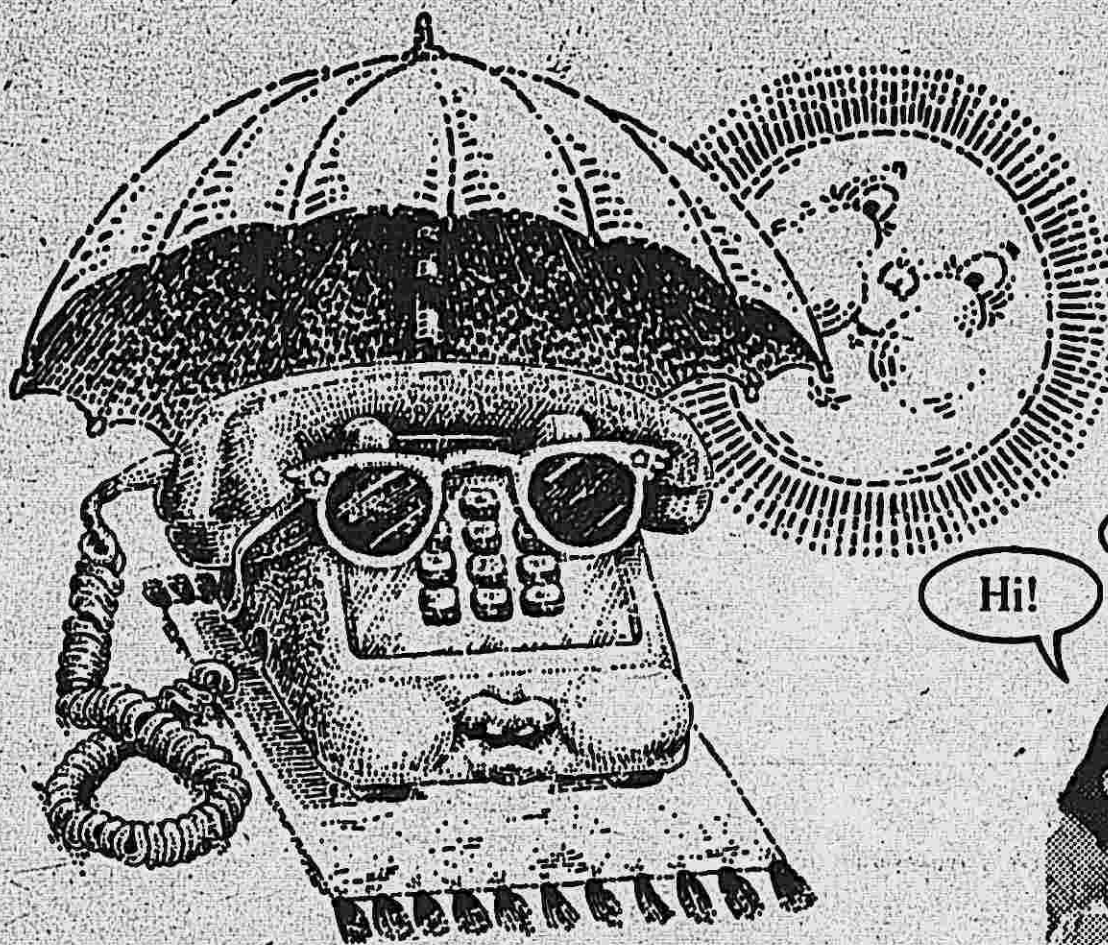

It can amplify what you hear, or what you say.

There are two kinds of amplifiers for your telephone.

One is for people with hearing problems. And the other for people with speech problems.

For an additional 50¢ monthly charge, you can either increase the volume of what is being heard, or what is being said. (Plus applicable installation charges.)

It can take a vacation.

If you're going to be gone for more than 14 days, you might be able to save money on your phone bill.

For a flat $8 charge, we'll suspend your regular billing for up to three months. (If you're going to be away longer, there's an additional charge of $1 per month.) And while you're gone, we'll refer your calls to another number if you wish.

It can help protect your privacy.

For families who like the convenience of extension phones but who also like to make private and uninterrupted calls, we offer an "exclusion key" that can temporarily cut off all other extensions.

It's available on all phones but the Trimline® phone for a 50¢ monthly charge. There's no charge for installation if done in connection with other work.

It can out-shout your vacuum cleaner.

Or your lawnmower. Or your blender. Or just about anything else that makes a lot of noise around your house.

All you have to do is have your phone equipped with a loud bell. It can be installed inside or outside the house for $1.25 monthly and a one-time $5 charge. (Plus applicable installation charges.)

It can talk to your whole family at once.

A speakerphone has both a microphone and a loudspeaker unit, so the whole family can get in on a conversation.

And you can talk without lifting the handset—a special convenience when you're busy in the kitchen, laundry, workshop or nursery. The charge is $10 per month plus a $12 one-time charge and applicable installation charges.

Write for a free catalog.

And this is just the beginning. With a little imagination and a little help from our new catalog, the possibilities for your telephone are practically endless.

Our catalog is called, "A New Look at an Old Friend." Send for your copy now.

You'll find out that your old friend the telephone has learned a few new tricks.

From Our Readers --

LEAF BURNING

Dear Sir:

Antioch should be happy now for it has its own smog. On a good Saturday there is a nice cloud of smoke over Antioch.

The mayor said recently that Antioch shouldn't worry about the leaf burning because Antioch doesn't have a pollution problem. It isn't Antioch alone that has a pollution problem, it is the whole world.

I'm just happy that the large cities like Chicago don't take this point of view. For on the world basis, Chicago doesn't even touch on the pollution problem by itself.

Pollution is the world's problem. So if the mayor or the board members who voted for the burning won't realize that we are contributing to this world-wide problem, I plea to the people individually to stop and take notice, for everyone must help to control this world-wide hazard.

POLICE DESK

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 6 -- Terry E. Coon of 1224 Main St. reported to police that his car was broken into while parked in a parking lot. He said that a $135 tape player, two speakers and some tools were taken.

THURSDAY, NOV. 7 -- John Horan of 261 Oakwood Drive reported that his pick-up truck was broken into and $470 worth of tools were taken.

SATURDAY, NOV. 9 -- Gerald Risch of 626 Phillips Circle told police that two bicycles, valued at $185, were stolen from his driveway.

SUNDAY, NOV. 10 -- Antioch police arrested a 24-year-old Twin Lakes, Wis., man after clocking him at 60 miles an hour in the 20 mph zone on Lake St. between Broadway and St. Peter's. The driver was stopped at 3:24 a.m. and charged with speeding and driving under the influence of liquor.

CHANNEL LAKE
CHATTER

The annual Wyoming hunting trip recently netted some of the hunters their year's supply of venison and moose. The hunters this year were John and Marg Runyard, Doug and Nancy Runyard, Tom and Sue Runyard, Tom and Paul Chase and from Cascade, Iowa Rich and Kathy Behrens.

Bob Gossman and sons Bob and Ron, Wayne Bobo and Bill Bailey journeyed to South Dakota to do some pheasant hunting. Because of the very dry, warm weather the hunting was not as good as in past years, but the group did manage to get some birds and have a very good time to boot.

Congratulations to Dan and Linda Runyard and family who have recently moved into their beautiful new home on north Lake Ave., near the Wisconsin line. Making the event even greater was a two week visit from Linda's parents from Boston.

On Oct. 30 the Channel Lake

School held its annual room mother's tea. The mothers got the chance to get acquainted with the teachers and enjoy coffee, tea and many delicious high calorie goodies.

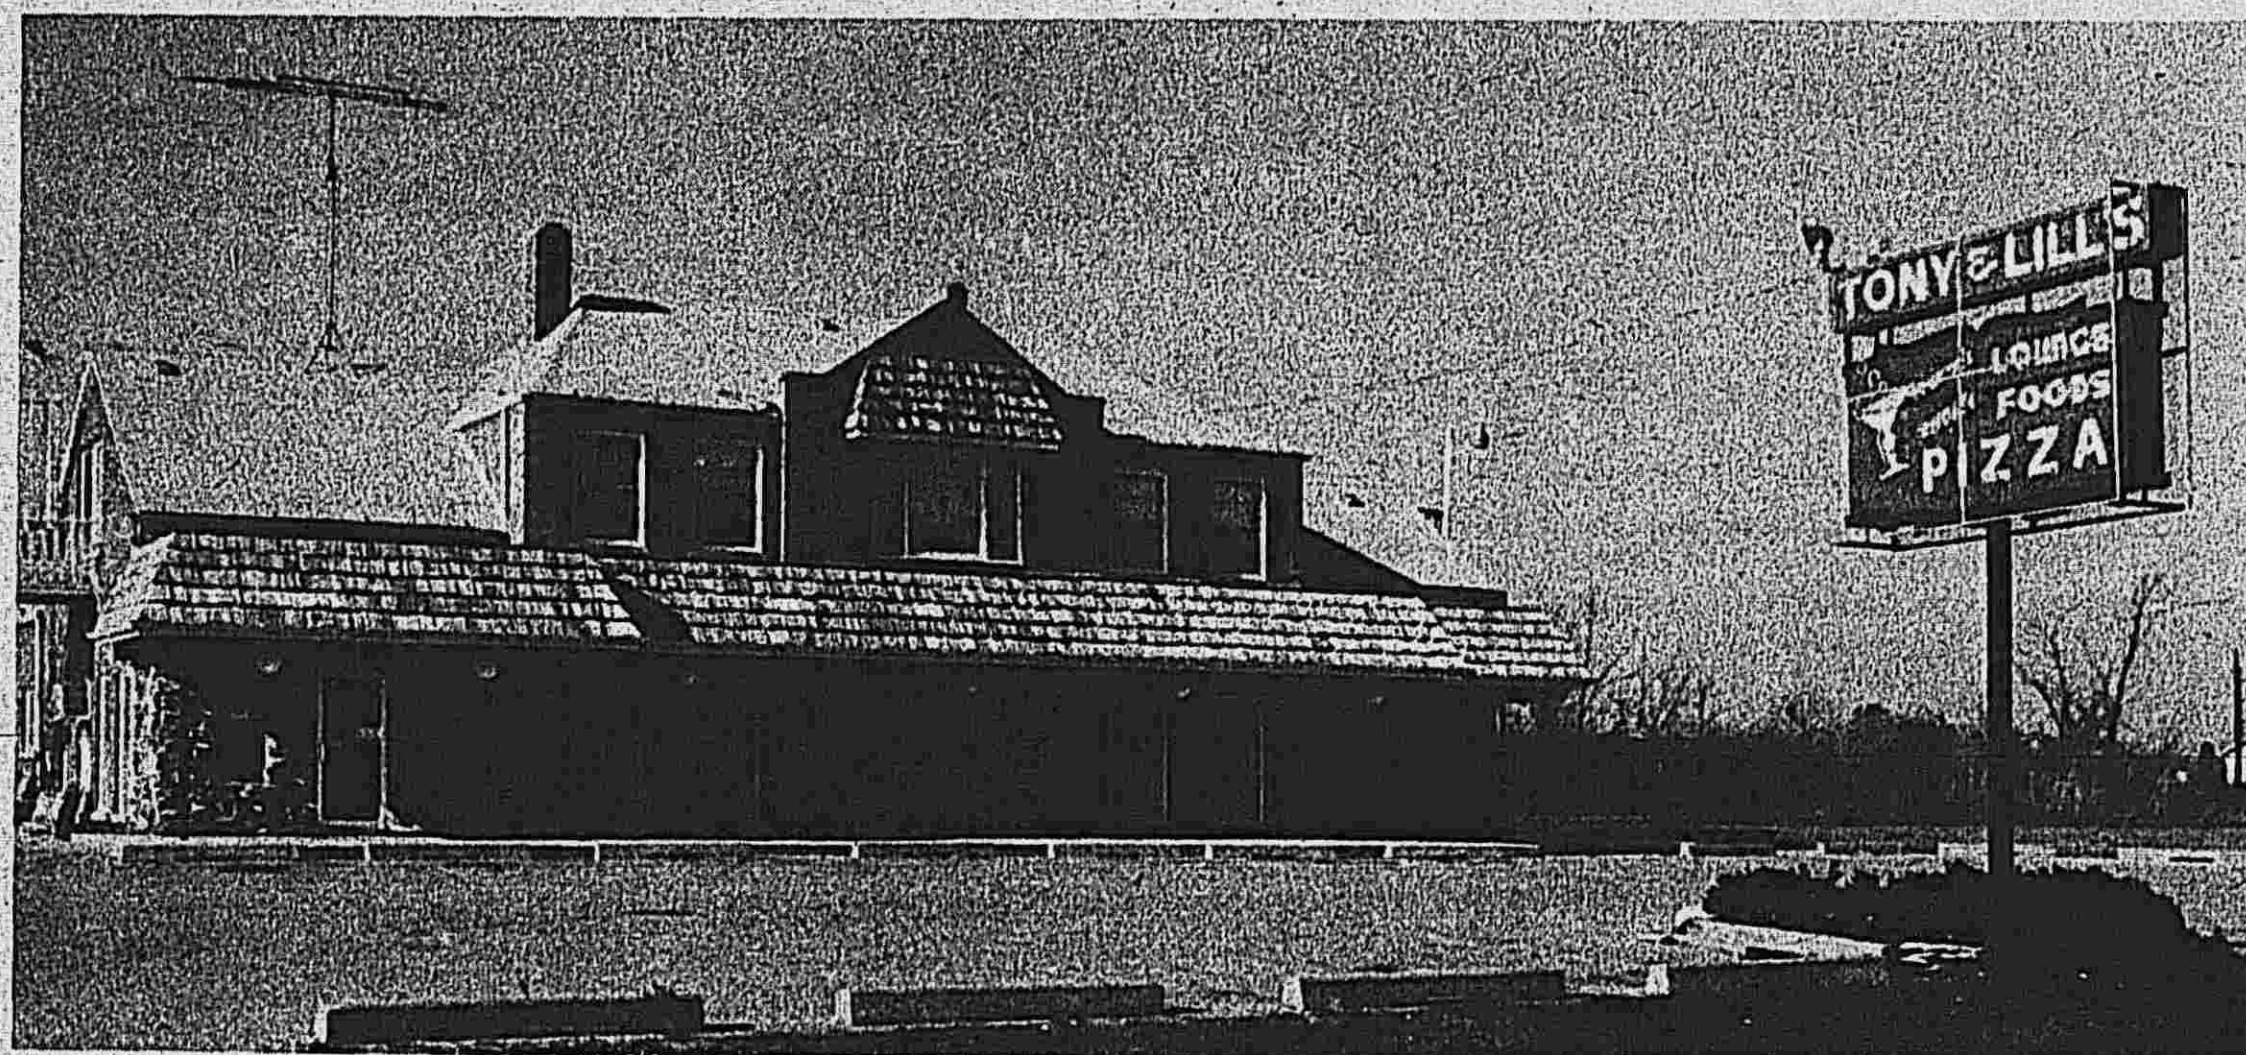

Thirty-five members of the Gutowski family gathered at Louise and Joe's home to help Grandpa (Ben) celebrate his 70th birthday on Oct. 27. A traditionally Polish menu was served and enjoyed by all. The weather was so beautiful that the men were able to get a last horse shoe match in before the season's end.

Belated birthday wishes to Kim Conklin who celebrated on Oct. 26 and to Jim Gutowski who was 14 on Oct. 30. Jim is limping around these days as a result of a knee injury that happened the last week of Antioch's football practice.

Rich and Kathy Behren were area visitors last weekend and had to spend some of their time at St. Therese Hospital. It seems their daughter, Dawn, was horseback riding with her friends when she fell from her horse and the animal stepped on her arm causing a bad break. They are all back to their home in Cascade, Iowa where Dawn is now on the mend.

Donna and Gary DeWitt and children Chris and Vicky spent this weekend with the Behrens in Iowa and report all is well with them.

The chorus is under the direction of Mr. Ralph Brooke and are eagerly awaiting a return invitation next year.

Cutting some red tape is always a big help if we know what to do, or what can be done.

There is a new document now which helps get business equipment through customs to ease the frequent business client who travels international.

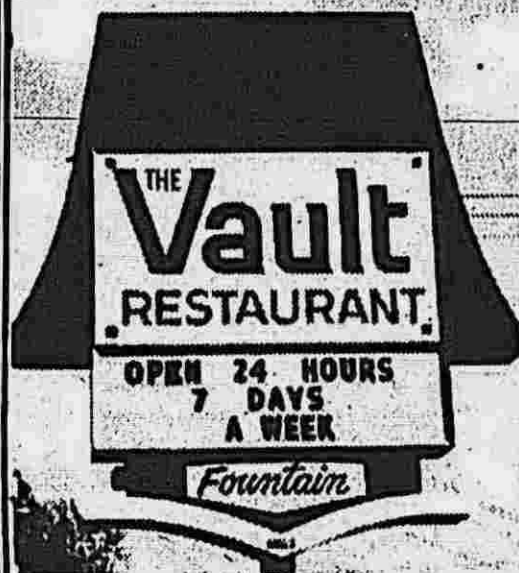

The document is called CARNET (kar-nay) and is issued by the U.S. Council of the International Chamber of Commerce. This will allow business and professional people to take commercial samples or professional equipment into and out of foreign countries with minimal red tape. This document eliminates the need to pay duties, post bonds or spend a great deal of time clearing customs with goods that are being imported on a temporary basis.

Carnets are much like travelers checks. Each contains several vouchers, two for each country visited - one to be used

'Running' Amid Apathy

By GRACE MARY STERN
County Clerk

During the election campaigning, as I sat among my Democratic colleagues at dinner one evening, Carol Mardell (new to the rat race of campaigning) said:

"I never knew where the phrase came from before: 'running for office.' " We compared our pocket calendars. "Now I know."

On that particular evening we were spinning spaghetti at a fund-raising function for Judge Hughes. We continued on to an installation of Amvet Auxiliary Officers in Round Lake. Almost before the oaths were taken, we decamped for a large dance in Lake Villa, benefiting the Rescue Squad. I bought two chances on the raffle, hoping to win the electric can opener. We have this problem with our cat-food cans, see. They cut all the way around except for two spots, and then you have to wrestle with them until you break one spot loose or sever a vein. Meanwhile, the hungry cat is bumping against your leg, meowing piteously. In any case, I didn't win the raffle.

FROM LAKE VILLA we burned up the road toward North Chicago and a grand polka-type dance at a Slovenic Hall. North Chicago is always a warm place for a Democratic candidate to visit. After the cool reserve of northwestern "out-county," the uncritical affection of our friends in North Chicago is balm for the spirit.

The evening ended with a couple of Italian sausage sandwiches at the women's Prosperity Club Dance in Highwood, and we finally got home around 2 a.m.

Granted that was an extraordinarily peripatetic Saturday night, each weekend follows a similar pattern as we approach deadline. In campaign years when I had children at home over the dinner hour I was constantly apologizing to them for slinging the food on the table and then racing away after the last bite, leaving them with the dishes. It's certainly easier now. The dog wouldn't know how to handle an apology and the cats are only interested in those half-opened cans of kidney, etc.

Campaigning in 1974, however, was different from 1970.

GRACE MARY STERN

Primarily it was different because I was the incumbent, I guess, and the battle-plan was a different one from the challenger's. However, the other factor was the almost palpable disinterest of the electorate this year, the thin attendance at political coffees, and the general apathy of those we approached in shopping centers. The American people apparently feel they have expended all the interest they can summon in politics this year; they don't seem to want to hear any more about any matter even tangentially political.

AND THAT'S a shame, because of course that's where the problems begin. Those of us who were meeting people at their front doors and in the shopping centers were finding an uneven reaction. Actual hostility is pretty rare—most people being willing to take the brochure and slip away without a sales pitch. Some manage to avert their eyes in a way that implies they never saw you in the first place. Just as rare as hostility is genuine, enthusiastic cordiality, however.

Our "Team" went door-to-door in neighborhoods of Buffalo Grove, Lake Zurich, Zion, Waukegan and Fox Lake and my experience was about 85 percent good. I was received courteously. But rarely did we hear an expression of pleasure that we took the trouble to stop or that we were pursuing this timeworn method of getting out the word.

Does this apathy indicate that the "Grass roots" have had it? That there's not a dime's worth of difference between the parties and among the candidates?

UNPAID MAIL

'Return To Sender'

Postmaster General E. T. Klassen has announced that the Postal Service will discontinue delivery of unpaid mail.

"It is unfair," Klassen said, "to burden the vast majority of mailers with costs created by the few who mail without prepayment of postage."

He said that postage-due delivery has also caused severe financial loss for utility companies, banks and other business establishments whose volume of unpaid mail has been increasing.

As of Sunday, all mail without postage will be returned to the sender.

If the envelope does not contain a return address, it will be sent to the dead letter office for appropriate handling.

SPORTS

FRANK PLEVIK

Defensive Star All-Conference

Frank Pleviak, a 170 pound defensive back, was the only Antioch football player named to the Northwest Suburban Conference all-star squad last week.

Pleviak, a senior, received the praise of Coach Roy Nelson after every game he played this season.

Pleviak lost his right index finger in a meat market accident early in the season, but continued to play. He was particularly adept at intercepting passes.

Co-champions Warren and Wauconda placed seven players each on the 34-man all-star squad picked by conference coaches. The selections:

OFFENSE
Centers - Mike Anderson, Wauconda and Larry Oarevzek, Grant.
Guards - Glen Chesser, Warren and John Brummond, Lake Zurich.
Tackles - Luke Lohmeyer, Woodstock; Bob Metcalf, Warren and Gary Manrik, Grayslake.

ACHS Football Has Good Frosh Coming Up

Help appears to be on the way for Antioch High School's varsity football team.

The freshmen, who will be full-fledged Sequoia in 1975 and 1976 finished their season with six wins and three losses -- good for third place in the conference.

Warren and Woodstock tied for the title for 8-1 records.

Antioch's Frosh battered their rivals' defenses for a total of 206 points while allowing only 58. The Antioch defensive unit held six teams scoreless and caused opponents to turn over the ball 18 times on fumbles and 14 times on pass interceptions.

Mark Berthold led in fumble recoveries and Al Roth in interceptions, each with four.

Keith Radke led overall with three interceptions and two recoveries.

Leading in defensive statistics were Tom Huebner, Jim Dituro and Rick Motley.

The team had good rushing (848 yards) and equally good passing (746).

Halfback Kenn Rosenbrock led ground gainers with 357 yards while fullback Tom Huebner gained 283 and fullback Allen Moore 184.

Quarterback Tom Dixon hit on 28 of 63 passes for 523 yards and threw for six touchdowns. Rosenbrock tossed for three touchdowns on halfback option passes.

Tight end Tim Huebner caught 20 passes for 397 yards and five touchdowns. Wingback Rick Brown scored three times on pass receptions.

Rosenbrock led in total offense with 568 yards and also in scoring with 48 points. Tom Huebner scored 46 points and set up some TDs with eight kickoff returns that totaled 218 yards.

Head Coach Norm Hahn expressed pleasure with the season and predicted a bright future for Antioch football.

"This team had great desire and persistence," he said. "They didn't quit. The freshmen didn't have much size, and neither did the sophomore team, but when these two squads blend together on the varsity they will be winners, because they want to be."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

Jesus proved the nothingness of sickness when he healed "all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people," as recorded in the Bible in St. Matthew 4. The understanding of man's perfection will be brought out this Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist in the Bible Lesson-Sermon on "MORTALS AND IMMORTALS."

From SCIENTIST AND HEALTH WITH KEY TO THE SCRIPTURES by Mary Baker Eddy this citation will be read: "The great spiritual fact must be brought out that man IS, not SHALL BE, perfect and immortal."

Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, BEACON HILL, Rt. 173 and Harden, Antioch, Ill., begin at 11 a.m. They are conducted by Mrs. Barbara Conzelman, First Reader, and Mrs. Lorraine Wirt, Second Reader.

Special Bible Display

During National Bible Week (Nov. 17-23) the Christian Science Reading Room will feature a special display on the Bible.

Featured as part of the display is the Nov. 23 issue of the Christian Science Sentinel, which includes seven articles on making the Bible pertinent to daily living. One of them, "The Unsealed Bible and World Affairs," points to ways that students of the Bible can help to establish a higher sense of government for nations and the world - government by Principle.

The window display also will feature books available for research and supplemental study of the bible.

Mrs. Barbara Beese, Reading Room librarian, said the members of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Rt. 173 and Harden, Antioch, welcome anyone wishing to browse or study to visit the Reading Room.

These prices are in most instances, well below diamond prices in the 1960's. With continuing inflationary trends, currency devaluation and unstable gold prices, diamonds have become a prime investment opportunity. Reports from Europe indicate that diamonds are being purchased by knowledgeable investors as an inflation "hedge". Nowhere will you find lower diamond prices than the above (quality-for-quality) and we highly recommend these stones for their investment qualities. We have the area's largest selection in our on the premises shop. A small deposit will reserve any of the above diamonds in our Christmas Lay Away.

Your Police and the Community

By SUE SEDIVEC
Community Relations Officer

Once again the community has been victimized by vandalism acts during Halloween evening.

It's too bad that the Eve of All Saints Day is commemorated by persons young, or older, breaking car windows, soaping house and car windows, throwing rocks, menacing subdivisions, disturbing neighborhoods and starting grass fires. For most youngsters Halloween is a happy day on which they can assume the role of a favorite character and masquerade through their village, usually being treated with candy or other goodies for their efforts.

As always, only a few are inconsiderate enough to spoil the evening for the rest of the community. But starting grass fires is getting a little bit out of hand.

Of course, every parent knew the whereabouts of his children (we hope) and received a full account of their activities when they returned home.

So some of our culprits are the unaccounted for; those poor souls who are not under parental supervision and have no concern for responsibility.

Well, I guess we have another year to anticipate this "fun" evening. It certainly is not an event for us to look forward to, but it can be.

Solution: completely banning trick or treating would only be a victory for the vicious, unkind and selfish people who are infiltrating our village.

Maybe an effort to organize a community get-together or social project, to benefit the community would be more sensible.

But think about it ... we've got one whole year. Maybe next year will be different -- but some people will never change.

And I guess the people who really need this "pep" talk don't read the paper, or can't even read ... anyways!

Scout Leaders
Plan Gathering

The annual meeting of the Northwest Cook Girl Scout
Council will be held in Chicago next week and Marilyn Zimmerman of Antioch will be one of the 16 adults and Senior Scouts from Lakeview Girl Scout Council attending.

The Senior Scouts attending are Colleen Graham, Janet Ward and Dorothy Howard.
Marilyn Zimmerman was a Senior Scout in Antioch and also has been an active adult volunteer. She has seen changes in Girl Scouting since she was a Brownie 20 years ago. She said,
"Girl Scouting now, more than ever before, can help each girl become a self-reliant individual and give her the skills she needs to relate to others in this changing world."

Lake County Crime Commission To Hear Jim Thompson

United States Attorney James R. Thompson, Northern District of Illinois, will be featured speaker at the semi-annual dinner of the Lake County Citizens Crime Commission on Thursday, Nov. 21 at the Northern Chalet, 1760 N. Milwaukee Avenue, in Libertyville.

Persons wishing to attend may make reservations by calling the Lake County Citizens Crime Commission office in Waukegan (244-3845), or by mail at Box 201, Waukegan.

The U.S. Attorney's appearance at the dinner may be of particular interest to the citizens of Lake County since a number of prominent figures in county and local politics and law enforcement have already been called to testify before the federal grand jury. The hearings are expected to continue until some time in December.

Katherine Walsh Entertains Woman's Club

An inspiring program "Lady Your Mind is Showing" by Mrs. Katherine Walsh was the highlight of the Woman's Club meeting on Nov. 3. A highly educated woman as well as a homemaker, lecturer and teacher, Mrs. Walsh, captivated her audience with her basis for Creative Thinking. She implored each of the women present to take any idea they may have and do it! If you notice any new ideas coming to light it just might be because she inspired someone present to do her own creative thinking.

Hostesses for the afternoon were the Mesdames Harry Stern, Thomas Santino, Ben Albergo, John Clemens, Julian Dzik, Edward Jacobs, E.O. Lewin, Walter Miller, Joseph Patrovsky, Sr. Albert Bucar, Roman Vos and Luliver Lasco.

The group will meet on Monday, Nov. 18 in Wesley Hall of the Antioch United Methodist Church. A 12 noon pot luck luncheon will be held with the 10th district officers as guests. John Mosiman will present a program on Musical paintings.
